

ImproveWell.

Community Forum Webinar | Creating the environment for continuous improvement: a Pharmacy team case study and strategic insights

At the end of this Community Forum, you will have learned:

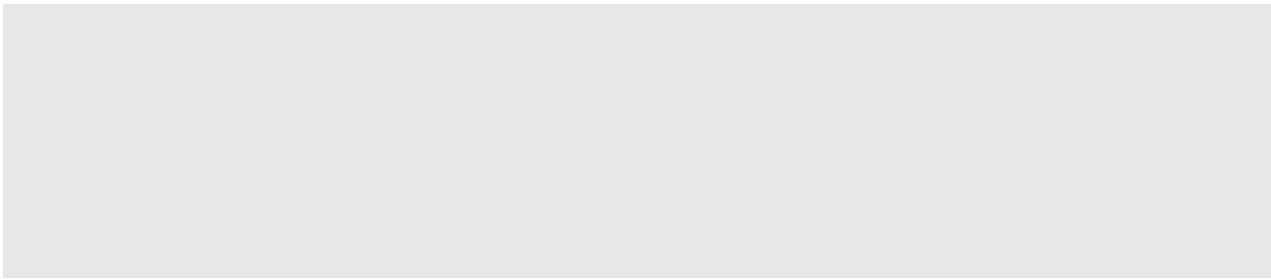

- Exclusive industry and data insights from ImproveWell
- How engaging the Pharmacy workforce at Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust is driving everyday change and innovation
- How to ensure success in any ground-up improvement programme

ImproveWell.

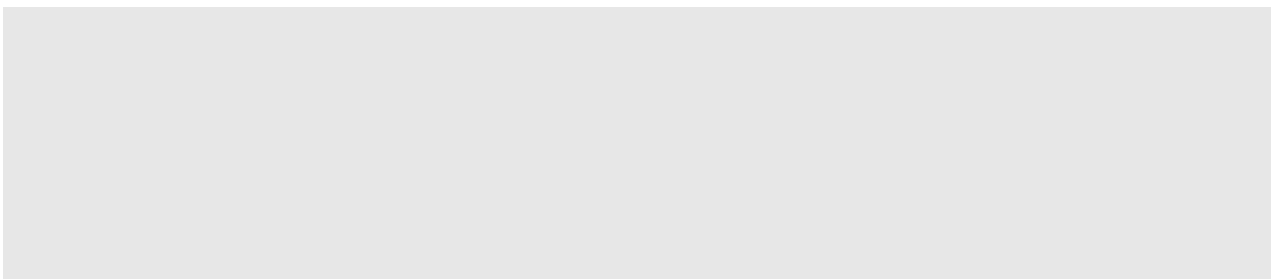

Community Forum Webinar | Creating the environment for continuous improvement: a Pharmacy team case study and strategic insights

To enable you to consolidate your learning, please reflect on and answer the following questions:

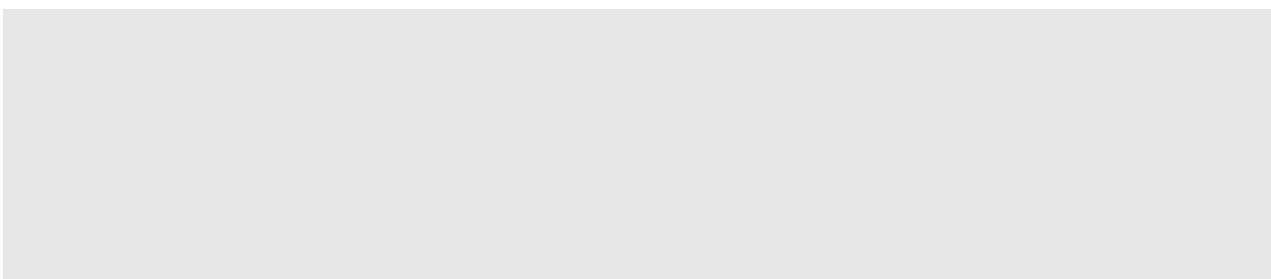

What does creating an environment for continuous improvement mean to you and how has this changed as a result of watching this webinar?

Thinking about the discussions within this Community Forum, how does your team or organisation support continuous improvement and how could this be improved?

How might you change how you engage frontline staff in an improvement programme differently as a result of watching this webinar?

ImproveWell.

Community Forum Webinar | Creating the environment for continuous improvement: a Pharmacy team case study and strategic insights

Please identify a colleague with whom you can share this Community Forum to continue the conversation

